

Please do not tamper with wisconsin's current no-call law. If I am a "former customer" of a business, there's a good reason I left, and I do not want to be badgered at my home phone number. If I'm a current customer, the business can insert a flyer about other products in my monthly bill. I do not want to be called! Leave our law as it is.